

DEUTSCH-CHINESISCHE
GESELLSCHAFT F. MEDIZIN E.V.
(DCGM) 德中医学协会

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Prof. Dr. med. Dr. h.c. mult. Manfred Dietel

Nationality: German

City/Country: Berlin, Germany

Title: sen. Professor of Histo- and Molecular Pathology at Charité
University Medicine Berlin Vice-President of the German-Chinese
Society for Medicine (DCGM), 2025

Medical

Education: 1967-1974 Study of Medicine at the University Hospital Hamburg
Eppendorf, Germany

Training in Pathology 1974-1979 Institute of Pathology University Hospital Hamburg
Eppendorf

Consultant (China): German Director of the Joint Institute of Pathology, EAST Hospital (Dong Fang), Tongji University Shanghai German Director of Institute of Pathology, Hospital No. 2, Hangzhou Normal
University/Virchow Laboratories Group.,
Shanghai/Beijing/Hangzhou

Qualification: President of the German Soc. of Pathology
Member of the WHO Classification of Tumours,
American Association of Cancer Research (AACR),
European Society of Pathology (ESP),

DEUTSCH-CHINESISCHE
GESELLSCHAFT F. MEDIZIN E.V.
(DCGM) 德中医学协会

Honors:

Recipient of the Paul-Martini-Award
Nicolaus August Otto – Preis der Stadt Köln
Academician of the German Academy of Science, Leopoldina
Council des World Health Summit
Recipient of the Virchow Medal, German Soc. Pathology

Honors (China):

Qianjing Friendship Ambassador for Foreign Experts”, Hangzhou, China
Flagship Ambassador of the Canal Talent Program, Hangzhou
Magnolia Silver Award of Shanghai, PR China
Chinese Government Friendship Award

Actual Position:

sen. Professor, consultant

Functions:

Medical Director of the Charité, Berlin
Dean of the Charité Berlin
Vice-Chair of the Scientific Board of the German Medical Association
Chair of the Sino-German Health Care Group
Honorary Member of the German Soc. of Senology
Honorary Member of the German Soc. of Pathology
Visiting Professor to several Chinese University Hospitals